

THE ENCLAVES

A RITZ-CARLTON RESERVE RESIDENCE

TO EXPLORE

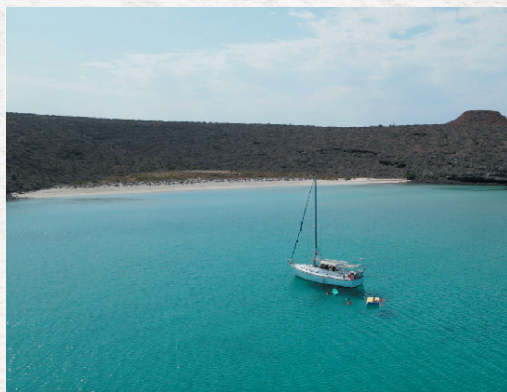

SAILING AWAY

The seeking of adventures at the ocean is one of the most intense and free experiences any human being can enjoy, enriches a lifestyle full of new experiences and adventures to incorporate to the personal repertoire.

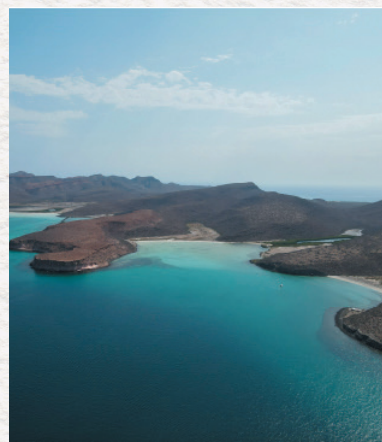

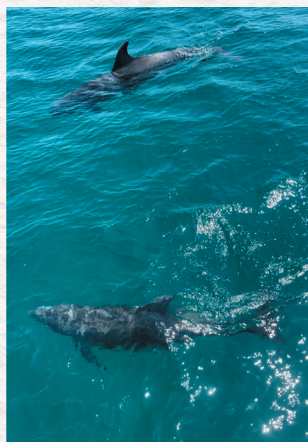

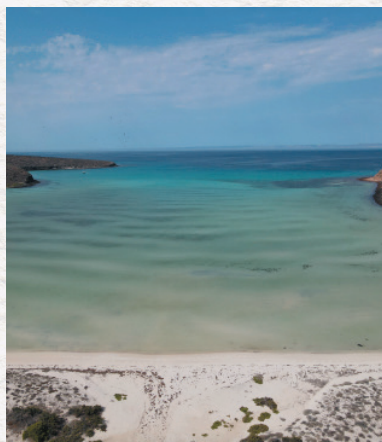

Marina Puerto Los Cabos, located just minutes away from The Enclaves, A Ritz-Carlton Reserve Residence, is the homeport for the residents and with its pinpointed location, is considered the gateway to the Sea of Cortes.

Baja California Sur shores offers limitless opportunities for ocean adventurers to set off from the territorial boundaries and sail away only to discover that every sunrise and every sunset are always different.

Set sail to the Sea of Cortes during summer translates as feeling cool breezes and plunge to warm waters, where the encounters with the vastly presence of the distinctive colorful, playful and unique marine life.

The call of the ocean gets only to a few, the sense of being lost without wanting to get found is a rare privilege that naturally provides a glimpse into a very exciting way of life.

From the sport passionate to the meditative and spiritual sailing is an activity with a lot of shades, that invites to live the present moment while being rewarded with the opportunity to enjoy iconic scenery and the most precious wonders of nature.

www.theenclaves.com